

EILEEN S. NATUZZI, MD, MS F.A.C.S.

Specialty: General and Vascular Surgery

Focus of Interest: Vascular surgery including minimally invasive endovascular techniques for AAA.
Angiograms, angioplasty and stenting for PAD.
Carotid surgery and stenting.
Endovenous varicose vein treatments.
Chronic venous stasis ulcer treatments.
General surgery

Board Certification: American Board of Surgery

Hospital Affiliation: Tri City Medical Center – Active
Scripps Memorial Hospital Encinitas – Active
Scripps Green Hospital Torrey Pines -Active

Medical School: George Washington University

Degree: MD (1989)

Internship: UCSF Medical Center-internship (1989-90)

Residency: UCSF Medical Center – Residency (1997)

Fellowship: Scripps Clinic – Vascular Surgery Fellowship (1998)
Scripps Clinic - Endovascular Fellowship(2005)
Kaiser Permanente, Honolulu, Hawaii-Endovascular Fellowship (2005)

Licensure: California (1990)
Hawaii (2005)

Appointments: Clinical faculty University of California, San Diego
Department of Family and Preventative Medicine

Membership: American College of Surgeons – Fellow
Alpha Omega Alpha Medical Honor Society
Howard Naffziger Surgical Society
San Diego County Medical Society
Project Access, SDCMS Foundation
Society of International Humanitarian Surgeons

Loloma Medical Foundation
William Moore Stack Foundation
World Health Organization/GIEESC Member

Dr Natuzzi has been treating complex venous disease for over 20 years. She has extensive experience in minimally invasive techniques such as endovenous laser, ultrasound guided foam sclerotherapy and sub-fascial perforator surgery (SEPS) for chronic venous ulcers.#