

DR. NEVILLE ALLEYNE

Dr. Alleyne is knowledgeable and compassionate when discussing orthopaedics. A gifted surgeon, speaker and author, he has inspired patients and colleagues alike with his in-depth interest in spine-related subjects.

Dr. Alleyne graduated from Mount Sinai School of Medicine and also taught there as an assistant instructor in Anatomy.

He then performed his internship and surgical residencies at Yale New Haven Hospital, Yale University School of Medicine. He subsequently received two fellowships: one for the spine at New England Baptist Hospital in Boston, and one for total joint reconstruction at Massachusetts General Hospital.

Doctor Alleyne specializes in all areas of adult spinal surgeries and is currently a consultant for several spine companies.

In addition to his lectures and publications, Dr. Alleyne is also responsible for a number of patents. These include a spinal cord protective device, a cardiac protective device, a tummy tutor and a radiofrequency coblation used in spinal surgery.

Dr. Alleyne specializes in martial arts, strength training, and most of all is a family man involved with his three children with soccer, gymnastics and baseball.

Orthopaedic Specialists of North County (OSNC), was founded in Oceanside in 1965 and incorporated in 1973. Over the years, we have treated multi-generations of families, including parents, grandparents and great-grand-parents for their orthopaedic injuries and ailments.

Our 13 board-certified physicians care for accident, sports - or work-related injuries, replacing total joints, or relieving chronic or acute pain. They give patients more lifestyle choices by offering the latest procedures, to help them stay active. For the convenience of their patients OSNC also offers services such as imaging, urgent care, and physical therapy to help patients recover; regain body strength quicker with less locations to visit.
